God se eie tuin

'n Bietjie humor

deur SWP

'n Boer van Namakwaland het "van melewse se dae" by sy seun in Pretoria, gaan kuier. Die seun besluit toe om vir sy pa die Unie-gebou te gaan wys.

Nadat hulle parkeer het, het die seun na die pragtige tuine op die gronde verwys. Die akkers was mooi bewerk en vol kleurvolle blomme.

Toe sê die pa: "My kind die tuine lyk pragtig, maar dit kom nie by Namakwaland se blommegrade. Dis mos God se eie tuin."

UPINGTON: We are heading towards our local government elections as South Africans; my wish is that irrespective of political affiliation let us still be human beings, brothers and sisters, good neighbours, families, friends, fellow congregants etc.

As people created by one God, there is nothing wrong if we differ in whatever way politically, it must just be in a healthy way.

Before, during, after, the local government elections, let us live as normal human beings, greeting, talking, socializing, visiting each other, asking water, food from each other etc. without any hard feelings until death do us apart.

We all know that local government elections are about the people not individuals.

Therefore let us remain focus in our areas of preference, let us all refrain from character assassination, character defamation and preach the good that the local govern elections has in store for all of us.

What ever challenges there are, we are certainly in a democracy where means are available through which we can in a matured manner raise such concerns or challenges without becoming personal by addressing the points at issue.

Our children, who are nieces, nephews and otherwise related to each other, must learn from us the better best lessons of how to live in peace as human beings not in pieces.

We must go to the grave knowing that our children do not just know that they must be respectful to the next person and that nothing in this life comes easy, that they must see it now from us and practice it accordingly.

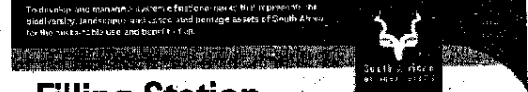

Maybe we need to have crosses or memorials in our houses or yards whereon L.I.P. (live in peace) is written just to remind us of the necessity of it.

On our graves when we are dead a cross with R.I.P. (rest in peace) is written whether you lived in peace or not.

May our heavenly Father give that all of us must realize that without peace we, our children and our communities will be in bad pieces, which is something not desirable for good people such as us all.

Ofcourse we do have our mistakes, all of us, but we must be prepared to learn from our mistakes because mud slinging will take us no where.

Rev. R.L. Mjethu
 Spiritual Leader

ACVV Jaarvergadering

Vervolg van bl. 11 Maatskaplike Dienste reggestel is nie, het steeds nie deur die ook aandag geniet. De Department Me. Liebenberg het die feit dringend onder me. Links, wat die vergadering namens die Department bygewoon het, se aandag gebring.

7) Laastens is daar aandag geskenk aan die werk wat die ACVV Maatskaplike Kantoor doen soos om kiere en kos aan minderbevooregte mense uit te deel.

Me. Kennedy het namens die maatskaplike kantoor, 'n paar woordjies gespreek en weer uitgelig hoe hard die verskeie maatskaplike werkers, ontwikkelingswerkers en hulpwerkers van die ACVV Upington tak werk, en hoe goed hulle hul van hul taak kwyt te midde van soms baie moeilike omstandighede.

Sy het genoem dat daar 'n behoefte is aan nog 'n maatskaplike werker.

Me. Smit, 'n ontwikkelingswerker van die ACVV kantoor, het toe vinnig melding gemaak van 'n firma van Johannesburg wat geld geskenk het waarmee die ACVV 23 gesinne wat deur die vloed geraak is, en wa geen alternatiewe inkomste het nie, kor help. Die gesinne is op Uap en Pokkiesellanc bygestaan deur onder andere 61 kospakkette wat deur mnr. Links afgegee is.

Na afloop hiervan is almal getraakteer met heerlike eetgoed wa deur die verskeie vrywilligers van die ACVV gemaak is.

Die ACVV wil enige dame wat wil betrokke raak by die verskillende bedrywighede nooi om die kantoor te skake by (054) 332 1402.

UPINGTON: We are heading towards our local government elections as South Africans; my wish is that irrespective of political affiliation let us still be human beings, brothers and sisters, good neighbours, families, friends, fellow congregants etc.

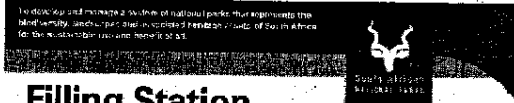

As people created by one God, there is nothing wrong if we differ in whatever way politically, it must just be in a healthy way.

Before, during, after, the local government elections, let us live as normal human beings, greeting, talking, socializing, visiting each other, asking water, food from each other etc. without any hard feelings until death do us apart.

We all know that local government elections are about the people not individuals.

Therefore let us remain focus in our areas of preference, let us all refrain from character assassination, character defamation and preach the good that the local government elections has in store for all of us.

What ever challenges there are, we are certainly in a democracy where means are available through which we can in a matured manner raise such concerns or challenges without becoming personal by addressing the points at issue.

Filling Station Attendant

Our children, who are nieces, nephews and otherwise related to each other, must learn from us the better best lessons of how to live in peace as human beings not in pieces.

We must go to the grave knowing that our children do not just know that they must be respectful to the next person and that nothing in this life comes easy, that they must see it now from us and practice it accordingly.

May be we need to have crosses or memorials in our houses or yards whereon L.I.P. (live in peace) is written just to remind us of the necessity of it.

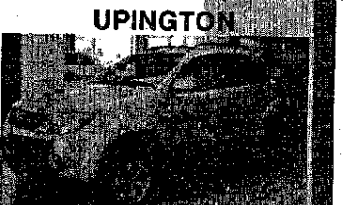

On our graves when we are dead a cross with R.I.P. (rest in peace) is written whether you lived in peace or not.

May our heavenly Father give that all of us must realize that without peace we, our children and our communities will be in bad pieces, which is something not desirable for good people such as us all.

Ofcourse we do have our mistakes, all of us, but we must be prepared to learn from our mistakes because mud slinging will take us no where.

Rev. R.L. Mjethu
 Spiritual Leader
